All personal information is held, processed and retained as is necessary in accordance with our legitimate interests as a business to act in the best interests of our Customers, Suppliers and Employees whilst maintaining a viable business.

Marketing

We may at times provide you with information regarding products and services we feel may be of benefit to you.

We consider that it is a legitimate business interest of ours to keep you informed of insurable (and non-insurable) risks that may be of benefit to you.

Should you wish not to be included in such activities and object to receiving this information you can advise us at any time by contacting our Data Protection Officer, Patrick Parnell – 01406 709 302 - pparnell@tourindemnity.co.uk

How long we keep your information

We retain your personal information for as long as we consider necessary to protect & be of benefit to you and to our legitimate interests as a business. This period may be indefinite if we have previously provided you with a contract of insurance, quotation or other service that could lead to a potential claim in the future. (Please see “Your Rights” below)

Your rights

You do not have to provide us with any personal information if you do not wish to, however this would mean that we would potentially be unable to provide you with the services and benefits you require from us including insurance contracts, claims service and advice.

You have the right to obtain access to, and copies, of all personal data we hold about you. You can request that all personal data we hold about you, and provided by you to us, be returned to you in a reasonable, common use and machine readable format. You also have the right to request that we provide this data to another data controller of your choice.

You have the right to require us to erase all of your personal data and also to restrict or object to our processing activities in respect of your data.

You have the right to require us to correct any incorrect personal information that we hold about you and to cease processing your information if it is causing you damage and/or distress

Please note that these rights may be limited by Data Protection legislation or other legal or regulatory issues.
